

Robert van de Kerkhof at World Textile Forum 2019

What does the future hold for the textile business? At World Textile Forum 2019 visitors will experience interesting talks focussing on Sustainable Sourcing & Digital Production by relevant speakers from the textile business.

Robert van de Kerkhof, Chief Commercial Officer at Lenzing AG, will present his ideas for the textile future at World Textile Forum 2019. In his position, he is responsible for Lenzing's Marketing and Sales, Corporate Sustainability and Supply Chain.

Robert van de Kerkhof also has considerable experience in updating companies' structures using innovative technology and supply chain optimisation.

He is also president of the Austrian Fiber Institute und vice-president of CIRFS - European Man-Made Fibres Association.

His expertise from over 25 years in the fibre industry and his work experiences in international organisations will provide for an exciting keynote speech and offer professional insights into the textile business.

The World Textile Forum 2019 will take place at the Zunfthaus zur Meisen in Zurich on 9 and 10 September.

For more information on the World Textile Forum please go to worldtextileforum.org.